Elvis (2022)

JANUARY 26th

A high energy biographical drama charting the life of an American music icon. The film documents Elvis' life through childhood to becoming a rock and movie star and examines his complex relationships with his manager, over the course of 20 years. Austin Butler's portrayal embodies the King from start to finish (Top critic). Directed by Baz Luhrmann.

The Road Dance (2021)

FEBRUARY 23rd

Kirsty lives in the Outer Hebrides in a small village in the years just before WW1. Her father had always encouraged her to seek a life beyond the island and when romance blossoms between her and local lad Murdo, the opportunity to see the world seems within reach. An elegantly old fashioned period drama beautifully shot keeps you riveted until the end.

A Few Good Men (1992)

MARCH 22nd

Is a classic courtroom drama with a stellar cast including Tom Cruise, Jack Nicholson and Demi Moore. Tom Cruise plays a slick young Navy lawyer assigned to investigate a murder case. As events unfold the reputation of the entire military is at stake. Based on a play which was inspired by actual events at Guantanamo Bay.

About Time (2013)

APRIL 19th

A feel-good romantic comedy that will touch the hearts of anyone who watches it. Directed by Richard Curtis (Love Actually) this heart warming comedy starring Rachel McAdam explores love, time travel and the human soul.
